

FRIENDS OF HESPERIA

The Journal of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens

Hesperia has grown tremendously since its founding in 1932. The original purpose of the journal was to publish the work of the School, and while this is still its core mission, Hesperia now also publishes the work of scholars from around the world. As Hesperia's scope has broadened, so has its influence in the field of Greek archaeology, which has increased its attractiveness to scholars wishing to reach a wide audience. The Friends of Hesperia has been established in order to support the journal's growth.

We therefore invite everyone to become a member of our Friends of Hesperia.

As our thanks to you, your name will be listed on the inside back cover of four consecutive issues of the journal.

Contributions are welcome in any amount and are tax deductible according to law.

Individuals and institutions wishing to support the Friends of Hesperia can complete the form below and mail it to the address on the form along with your donation. Or, please feel free to contribute online at: www.ascsa.edu.gr/publications/hesperia/friends-of-hesperia
